I bought this pair of Polk SDA2's about ten years ago, and they were about five years old at the time. They were lightly used then, and I have taken good care of them. The cabinets are in fine condition and all of the drivers are in fine working order. They still sound as great today as they did the day I bought them. They have that classic Polk sound, not like the mass market junk they sell now. Please notice, only for local pickup (Baltimore/D.C.), because these are heavy speakers and would be more to ship than it would be worth. Good luck!
